CAF Examination Committee Notes

The following notes were drafted by the CAF Examination Committee, and are effective as of 15 August 2012.

EXAMINATION COMMITTEE NOTE 1:

Techniques required for testing are the same as those required at Hombu. The examiner or examination panel members can request demonstration of additional techniques at their discretion.

EXAMINATION COMMITTEE NOTE 2:

The following are the MINIMUM intervals required between tests in the CAF:

Testing for:	Minimum days practice since previous promotion:	Minimum time since previous promotion:
5th Kyu	60
4th Kyu	80
3rd Kyu	100
2nd Kyu	100
1st Kyu	120
1st Dan	200	1 year since 1st Kyu
2nd Dan	350	2 years since 1st Dan
3rd Dan	500	3 years since 2nd Dan
4th Dan	650	4 years since 3rd Dan

The above testing intervals are only minimum requirements. Some individuals may require many more days than the minimally required days of practice to reach an acceptable level of technical competency. Their instructors (or the Examination Committee when necessary) must make reasonable judgement in this regard.

EXAMINATION COMMITTEE NOTE 3:

The Examination Committee will take into consideration various factors such as age, physical limitations, dojo locations (being far away from dojo-populated cities where higher-ranked instructors teach and seminars are conducted regularly), and other aspects of individual candidates. The Examination Committee can grant permission on a case-by-case basis to test with fewer days or a shorter interval after the previous promotion than required as “special cases”, in order to be sensitive to specific circumstances of individual candidates.
